

PRESS RELEASE

Trinity Horne shortlisted for three Management Awards

LONDON – 10th March, 2010 – Trinity Horne are delighted to announce that in conjunction with its clients Siemens, Yorkshire Water and eircom, it has been shortlisted in the International, Environment and Innovation categories at this year's Management Consultancies Association (MCA) 2010 Awards.

Brendan Cahill, Trinity Horne CEO commented 'In 2009 we were successful in winning the Award for Best Performance Improvement Project in the Private Sector for which we were delighted. This year to be nominated for three awards represents real progress and I believe accurately reflects the quality, innovation and value we provide to our clients'

The winners will be announced at the Awards Dinner on Thursday 29th April, 2010 at the prestigious Grosvenor House Hotel, Park Lane, London. The winners will be selected by an expert panel of judges. The judges are Andy Saunders, Deputy Editor, Management Today, Sally Scutt, Deputy Director General, British Bankers' Association, Harriet Arnold, Deputy Editor, Business Life Desk, Financial Times, Paul Webster, Consultant, Procurement, Investment and Commercial Division, Department of Health, and Dr. Peter Walmsley, Programme Lead, Supplier Relationship Management, The Home Office, to mention a few. For more information on this year's Awards please click here <http://www.mca.org.uk/mca-management-awards-2010-shortlist>

About Trinity Horne

Trinity Horne provides transformation services to the IT, Telco, Finance, Government and Utilities sectors. With a portfolio of blue chip clients, Trinity Horne differentiates based on its value based propositions; its deep sector based content expertise and its ability to deliver sustainable business improvement. www.trinityhorne.com

About the MCA Management Awards

The MCA Management Awards, now entering their 14th year, and run in association with Management Today, seek out the very best management consultant and client teams, who have delivered truly outstanding results and demonstrated how the UK consulting industry is a positive force for the economy.

<http://www.mca.org.uk/awards/management-awards>

For more information please contact:

Majella Murphy, Trinity Horne Ltd. Tel: 0870 3665800